Great is Thy Faithfulness

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father,
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not,
Thy compassions, they fail not.
As Thou hast been Thou forever will be.

Great is Thy faithfulness!
Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed Thy hand has provided—
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Upcoming Events:

Janine Warrington will be teaching a class on the book of Esther starting Sunday, January 30, at 9:30AM on Zoom (hopefully moving to in-person if Covid conditions improve). You don't want to miss this opportunity to learn about political upheaval and courage in the Bible.

Andy Hill will be leading a weekly Zoom discussion on racial justice films for Black History Month starting Wednesday February 2 at 7pm. Watch in advance and come ready to discuss. RSVP office@ormewoodchurch.org for weekly slate of films.

Due to the Covid surge we are postponing our Bingo night. We're so excited and can't wait to share this night together soon.

The best way to keep in touch is to sign up for (and read) the bi-weekly newsletter. Sign up on our homepage.

COVID-19 Policy

Large in-person gatherings are currently postponed due to the Covid surge in our area. Worship will remain on Zoom through Sunday, February 13, 2022. If Covid constraints are getting you down, don't be afraid to reach out to anyone on the staff for support and care.

Speak, O Lord

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You
To receive the food of Your Holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us;
Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,

That the light of Christ might be seen today
In our acts of love and our deeds of faith.

Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory.

Luke 9:18-27

Once when Jesus was praying alone, with only the disciples near him, he asked them, 'Who do the crowds say that I am?' They answered, 'John the Baptist; but others, Elijah; and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has arisen.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered, 'The Messiah of God.'

He sternly ordered and commanded them not to tell anyone, saying, 'The Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.'

Then he said to them all, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it. What does it profit them if they gain the whole world, but lose or forfeit themselves? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words, of them the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.'

Multiplied

Your love is like radiant diamonds bursting inside us-- we cannot contain.

Your love will surely come find us
like blazing wild fires
singing Your name.

God of mercy,
sweet love of mine,
I have surrendered
to Your design.
May this offering stretch across the skies and these Hallelujahs be multiplied.
