Open the Eyes of My Heart

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord.
Open the eyes of my heart.
I want to see You.
I want to see You.

To see You high and lifted up,
Shining in the light of Your glory.
Pour out Your power and love,
As we sing holy, holy holy.

Holy, holy, holy
Holy holy, holy
I want to see You.

CCLI Song 2298355

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea.
There's a kindness in God's justice,
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
are more felt than up in heaven.
There is no place where earth's failings
have such kindly judgment given.

But we make God's love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify God's strictness
With a zeal God will not own.
Was there ever kinder shepherd
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Savior who would have us
Come and gather at his feet?

For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind.
And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful,
we would gladly trust God's Word,
and our lives reflect thanksgiving
For the goodness of our Lord.

Speak, O Lord

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You
To receive the food of Your Holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us;
Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,

That the light of Christ might be seen today
In our acts of love and our deeds of faith.
Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory.

Luke 5:27-32

After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up, left everything, and followed him. Then Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them. The Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" Jesus answered, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I have come to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance."

Servant Song

Neighbor let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you.
Pray that I might have the grace to
Let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey.
We are siblings on the road.
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you
In the night time of your fear.
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping.
When you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
Till we've seen this journey through.

Sister, Brother, let me serve you
Let me be as Christ to you.
Pray that I may have the grace to
Let you be my servant too.

Liturgy of Sending

Leader: Even at the end there is a blessing, for the sorrow of cessation is a measure of the depth of the bond we have come to share in Christ.

People: Thank you, O God, that we do not walk this road alone,

Leader: But that this journey toward eternity and toward your heart has been, from the beginning, one that you ordained we should undertake in the glad and good company of our fellow pilgrims.

People: Let us therefore go forth and steward one another's journeys.

Leader: Let us journey from here together, as vessels of that mercy and as stewards of that wild and wondrous beauty that flows from the heart and mind of our Creator.

People: By your Spirit, O Christ, we are grateful for the gift of Andy and Courtney Anne.

Leader: Grant, O Lord, that we might take our leave of Andy and Courtney Anne as interns, feeling a right joy for the blessings of the hours we have shared, even as we feel a bright and hopeful sorrow at the close of their internship.

People: Oh Spirit of God, be as present in our transitions as you were in our gathering.

Leader: Be present in our works and in our words and in our hearts.

People: Be present in the bonds of our community, Lord Christ.

Leader: Be ever at work among us and through us. Amen.
